

Engineered for Comfortable Convenience

The demand for a higher standard of living is constantly escalating and major leap in efforts and investments in sanitation is needed to reduce open defecation in public places. Portable toilets play a vital role in nation's hygiene

Sanitz provides solutions with logistical, economical, and environmental benefits. Portable Toilets don't need constant maintenance, government permission and occupy lesser real estate. The usage for portable toilets can be grouped into four main categories. Sanitz's Portable Toilets offers benefits to our customers in each of these areas.

- Construction
- Recreation
- Special Events
- Commercial

Construction With large numbers of workers onsite, every construction project has a need for portable toilet service. Santiz provides portable toilet solutions to general construction, highway construction, road projects, airports, mining, military, energy projects, demolitions, etc.

Recreation areas that typically use portable toilets include municipal, state and federal parks, golf courses, schools and universities, beaches and camp grounds, athletic fields, historical sites, picnic areas, zoos, highway rest areas, etc.

Special occasion customers are businesses, individuals or organizations who host or manage short-term events. They include social gatherings, fairs and festivals, street and parking lot events, sports events, outdoor concerts, graduations, weddings, religious gatherings, political campaigns, funerals, etc.

Commercial Customers include those retailers, service companies and industrial facilities that have employees and customers who work and shop outside. Some of them are factories, refineries, landfill disposal areas, farms, nurseries, water treatment plants, warehouses, steel mills, utility companies, amusement parks, temples, etc.
